(Insert proper item numbers)

Item No. 6

Public relations activities which our firm organized for the European Travel Commission included a promotional visit to Chicago by a delegation of ETC members who participated at a special dinner meeting of the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA) Midwest Chapter. The delegation also met with travel writers. There was a similar activity coordinating the participation of ETC members at a New York Chapter of ASTA meeting in May at which time each ETC member spoke briefly of the tourist attractions of their countries and offered their travel literature. There were a number of ETC membership meetings in New York arranged by our firm to discuss ETC problems. Contact with Government officials concerned with tourism included making inquiries of the U.S. Passport Office and the U.S. Department of Commerce mainly on statistical information pertaining to American travel to Europe, and informal exchanges of views and tourist traffic information.

Item No. 6

Our contract with the Italian State Tourist Office expired on December 31, 1964. Special projects handled on a per project basis consisted of developing a series of travel agent seminars for the purpose of training travel agents and their sales staffs on the tourist facilities and attractions of Italy. In connection with these seminars we designed and produced a general information booklet on travel to Italy and a file folder or kit designed to contain tourist literature on Italy for the use of travel agents.

Item No. 10 (b) and (c)

The film referred to in this item is entitled "Invitation to Europe". It was produced more than 10 years ago when the Caples Company (now out of business) handled the advertising and public relations activities of the European Travel Commission. The film is distributed by Tribune Films, Inc., 141 E. 44th Street New York, N.Y. We do not know whether the film was written and produced here or in Europe. (This film now has been withdrawn from distribution because it is out-dated).
